Dear Harold,

The passing of J.E.H. simply removes a very vulnerable target of criticism.

Heard Jaffe was with The Fonda "Show." "Rumors" have J.G. dying.

The Wallace shooting will strengthen "The Higher Circles" by the sceptic public acceptance of The Law and Order silver song.

On the media level the cliche of a hate killed, lone assassin misfit is being thematically extended to cover all the assassinations.

In fact according to the new revisionism (The Kennedy Doctrine by Fitz Simons or Walton etc.) J.F.K. was a virtual warmonger. How fitting that The New York Times should publish Earl Warren's A Republic - If You Can Keep It. A sucks joke, that.

Matt Sable once accutely remarked that "R.F.K. will be relegated to a casualty of World War II."

Your references to Orwell were chillingly prophetic. Raw propaganda is the name of the game. Its flunkies are well rewarded. Frank will get half a million as an allowance for Garland biography.

As the enclosure suggests, Burke Marshall played an interesting role in The Malcolm X affair.

At this stage, however, it would appear that only some very sensational development could bring out the truth.

This does not appear libelous. Alas! Do you agree?

Thus, as P.M. is too technical on a commercial basis, Tiger is perhaps the best property.

Of course, your avatar represents an achievement of really heroic proportions. You're an American witness, an historian who tells Truth to Power and the fact that you had to be your own publisher casts a harsh light of commentary upon America's "Free Press." Compared to Zola (a not unfair analogy) you suffer from the fact that he battled a midget while the force of your opposition resembles a hydra and represents a force of proportions unknown in other days.

I cannot accept the Mafia, or Mafia concept of Tagers or Ujwicks about Mafia figures called to be subcontracted by the CIA.

Hypnosis, with increasingly sophisticated techniques and drugs, could produce a "lone assassin" also.

Obviously, practice makes perfect.

I unabridged as of this date Cyril has not even received the grace of a reply from Marshall.

Please use my Canadian address. And get plenty of rest.

You're a valuable national resource as well as a good friend.

Sincerely,

P.S.

Amusing as yet Frank that Garrison ridiculed The M.L.K. assassination at The Institute For Defense Analysis!

The Shaplen article has fascinating - if unknown - parallels.

The Neely novel, yet from a literary view, possesses an intriguing, if unoriginal concept.

Lansky - See re: Smathers and McLaney particularly 191.

Contradictions appearing in Wallace shooting.

Who benefits? The Economic Cartel/Corporate interests.
